

From: Clark Cox
To: Microsoft ATR
Date: 1/8/02 7:52pm
Subject: Anti-Trust Case

There is no way DOJ can prove consumers are worse off due to Microsoft's actions. Maybe their competitors are worse off, but that is the nature of business. Personal computer use soared in this country due to standardization, and that standardization is due to the success of Microsoft's products. Please stop wasting our tax dollars with the pursuit of Microsoft, there are much better uses of these dollars than frivolous litigation.